

VENTOUX MAQUIS TRAILS OF MEMORY

WEDNESDAY 25th SEPTEMBER

KD's BRUNCH AT HOME from 11 am at Oppède

Presentation talk

by Jean Dillinger

Debriefing (leaflets and route)

Address and details on registration

(Limited nb of people)

Participation to expenses 20€ (in cash only)

Contact : 06 83 16 21 25

Email : katherine.despax@orange.fr

Departure from KD's: precisely at 1 pm

Car-pooling recommended

FRANCO-BRIT GUIDED TOUR VISIT

(translation into english on site)

by retired French army official and

Pdt of the French War Graves Commission,

Jean Dillinger,

Président du Souvenir Français

who created the

Memorial Trails of Resistance.

This tour (starting from Oppède, and finishing at Sault) is commemorating some major historical events and landmarks in WW2 Ventoux Maquis around Sault and Saint-Saturnin-lès-Apt, with stops at a few historical sites including a farm, a private castle and a secret landing-field where spitfires would fly officers and Resistance men to and from London.

Those who wish to do so, or/and have left their cars at KD's, are welcome to : end of day's drinks and quiche-salad aperitif dinner before leaving.