Visit to the Departmental Archives of Vaucluse in the Chapel of Pope Benedict XII in the Palace of the Popes in Avignon

Thursday 12 September 2024 at 10am

Pope Benedict XII's Chapel (La Grande Chapelle) of 1335 is the most important chapel at the Palais des Papes. It has been used to house archives for a century, see:

This two-hour visit (no entry fee) involves steep staircases and will be unsuitable for anyone who finds climbing difficult.

The group can be no more than 20 in number. Please sign up quickly to be sure to be on the list, and please let us know if you have to cancel so that someone else might take your place.

A 'Let's Lunch' will follow the visit, at Le Gôut du Jour, a short walk from the Palais des Papes.

This restaurant offers weekday lunches at €19 for two courses, €24 for three.

If you would like to take part in this outing, either for the visit and the lunch, or for just one or the other (please indicate which clearly), please email: info@francobrits84.fr

Meeting points to be notified nearer the time, car sharing is encouraged.

Departure from Carpentras at 8:45AM
